Is your 65th birthday coming up? Do you have coverage through work or your spouse's employer? You may need to sign up for Medicare!

A licensed, professional insurance or broker can help you determine v you should enroll in Medicare to av financial penalties.

If you're turning 65 and you're...

agent when woid remain on your employer-sponsored health plan. When you lose your surance, you can sign up for Medicare Parts A and B without facing a bllment penalty.
e Part A when they turn 65, as it can help cover expenses primary te doesn't cover.
with your employer. There's a good chance you'll need to sign up for e Parts A and B. After you turn 65, your job-based coverage may not e full cost of your health care if you work for a small employer.
Medicare Parts A and B as soon as you're eligible. You won't be to a special enrollment period when your COBRA coverage ends, so face financial penalties if you sign up for Medicare late.
want to delay enrollment in Medicare, since you won't be able to te to your HSA after you enroll. Plan on making your final contribution HSA at least six months before you enroll in Medicare to avoid halty.
obably enroll in Medicare as soon as you're eligible, given that your

You can r Covered by an employer plan at an group ins organization with more than 20 late enrol employees Some exp Medicare insurance Covered by an employer plan at an Check w Medicare organization with fewer than 20 cover the employees Covered by COBRA Enroll in entitled t you may You may Covered by a high-deductible health contribut plan at an employer with more than 20 to your H employees and would like to continue a tax pen contributing to a Health Savings Account Covered by a high-deductible health employer-sponsored coverage may not cover all your medical expenses after plan at an employer with fewer than 20 you turn 65. After you enroll in Medicare, you'll no longer be able to contribute employees and would like to continue to your HSA. contributing to a Health Savings Account You'll probably want to sign up for Medicare Parts A and B to avoid late Covered by a group plan that is not Then...

"creditable coverage," such as TRICARE, the VA, COBRA, or the FEHB enrollment fees. You may be able to delay enrolling in Medicare Part D without penalty.

